New world petroleum economic order

2664. SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) the steps taken by Government at the international level for a new petroleum economic order to protvide energy security to developing countires from the violent international price fluctuations; and
(b) what will be India's projected oil import bill during the year 2000-2001?

THE MINISTER OF STATE INTHE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI SANTOSH GANGWAR): (a) At the International Energy Forum meeting of oil producing and consuming countries held at Riyadh, Saudi Arabia from November 17-9, 2000, India made a suggestion to the effect that oil exporting countries should consider giving conessions to the developing countries in the form of discounts, deferred payments, soft credits etc. The suggestion was well taken and the need to give special consideration to developing countries was appreciated. The matter was also taken up in the bilateral meetings also with the oil exporting countries, including Saudi Arabia, Iran, Kuwait, UAE, Indonesia, Algeria, Nigeria and Qatar. Each of these countries, during the bilateral discussions was appreciative of the
